

February Vacation at Battleship Cove

February 13, 2010 Family Overnight@

Spend the night on a WWII battleship! Sleep in restored Navy bunks; eat meals “chow-line style” in the Officer’s Wardroom, and rise and shine to the sound of reveille. Guests will enjoy all-day admission, three delicious meals, and will have the opportunity to participate in shipboard activities. They will also receive a free Overnight Survival Guide filled with fun facts and activities.

February 15-19, 2010 Family Fun Week

During February vacation, families can spend a day aboard Battleship Cove’s historic vessels. Learn how to tie knots, spell your name out in signal flags, participate in scavenger hunts, learn the proper way to fold the American flag, , write letters to active duty troops, and more! World War II Disney cartoons will also be shown during the week.
