

Harwich Historical Society

Enjoy the music of America, museum tours, and hands-on activities for kids in a Presidents' Day celebration Monday, February 15, 2-4 p.m. at Brooks Academy Museum in Harwich.

Sponsored by the Harwich Historical Society, this program features a duet by local musicians pianist Jan Mills and vocalist Martie Martin who will perform a selection of toe-tapping, stirring, and sometimes haunting traditional American tunes. Exhibits on include "All Aboard the Harwich Railroad" featuring a working 17x20 foot HO scale model layout of early 20th century Harwich; "Boys of Summer" chronicling high school and town teams; "Cranberry Culture" and Presidents' Day memorabilia. Admission is $3 for adults; and free for kids to age 18 and members of the Society. Brooks Academy Museum is located at 80 Parallel Street in Harwich. For more information, please call (508) 432-8089 or email harwichhistoricalsociety@verizon.net