Details of Tanglewood’s 75th Anniversary Season will be announced at a press conference at Boston’s Symphony Hall today, Thursday, November 17, at 1:15 p.m. Members of the press are also invited to cover the BSO’s Thursday-morning rehearsal for this week’s concert, 12:30-1 p.m.

Managing Director Mark Volpe, Artistic Administrator Anthony Fogg, BSO Concertmaster Malcolm Lowe, and Principal Trumpet Tom Rolfs, will present details on a spectacular lineup of guest artists; exciting programming inspired by Tanglewood’s rich performance history going back to its founding in 1937; eight world premiere performances; and new media initiatives including major tanglewood.org streaming offers free to all, bringing Tanglewood’s 75th anniversary season to a worldwide audience.

One of the most popular and acclaimed music festivals in the world, Tanglewood—the Boston Symphony Orchestra’s summer home since 1937—is located in the beautiful Berkshire Hills between Lenox and Stockbridge, MA. With an average annual attendance of more than 300,000 visitors each season, the festival has a $60 million impact on the Berkshire economy each summer. Tanglewood presents orchestra concerts by the Boston Symphony, Boston Pops, and visiting ensembles, featuring many of the greatest classical musicians of our time; recital and chamber music concerts in the intimate setting of Ozawa Hall; programs highlighting the young musicians of the Tanglewood Music Center, the BSO’s prestigious summer music academy; performances by some of today’s leading popular artists; and a season-ending Labor Day Weekend festival.
